Taking the truth deeper

- Do you work hard at getting God's word right, and do we do it for our own benefit - or to serve others?
- Does our conversation with other believers move us closer to God, and cause us to grow in Godliness - or is it empty words?
- Do you need to grow in your willingness to be clear about truth, or do you need to grow in gentleness? How can you do this, and how can you help others / let others help you?
